

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference Saturday, April 22, 2017

4:00pm - 7:00pm	Registration	Skyview Foyer
5:30pm - 7:00pm	Cocktails (cash bar)	Skyview Foyer
7:00pm	Dinner Reception	Skyview 5-6
7:00pm - 7:15pm	Introduction Susan Fuchs, MD, FAAP Charles Macias, MD, MPH, FAAP	Skyview 5-6
7:15pm - 7:30pm	American Academy of Pediatrics Prashant Mahajan, MD, MPH, MBA, FAAP
Opening Plenary
7:30pm - 8:30pm	Plenary: Chutes and Ladders: How to Be Resilient in Your Career Karen Remley, MD, MBA, MPH, FAAP The CEO/Executive Vice President of AAP will describe her pathway to leadership and derive important professional development lessons through experiential vignettes. Emphasis will be placed on opportunities and pathways for women in medicine, but the dialog will be relevant to all fellows.	Skyview 5-6
8:30pm - 9:30pm	Plenary: EMSC Update Charles Macias, MD, MPH, FAAP The new EMSC Innovation and Improvement Center (EIIC) is based at Texas Children’s Hospital in Houston. This session will describe the transition from the National Resource Center in Washington, DC and the goals of the EMSC program and the EIIC.
9:30pm - 9:45pm	Closing Remarks	Skyview 5-6

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference Sunday, April 23, 2017

7:00am - 8:00am	Breakfast (Meet the Faculty)	Skyview 5-6
8:00am - 9:00am	Plenary: Physician Leadership and Advocacy in Times of Change Michael Gerardi, MD, FAAP, FACEP As the recent Past President of ACEP and a longtime member of the AAP, this speaker will discuss the forces driving America's most sustained time of health care reform in history. Your participation in state and national professional medical organizations will lead to profound changes in pediatric emergency medicine. As a volunteer physician advocate, you will be rewarded by personal fulfillment and career longevity.	Skyview 5-6
9:15am - 10:30am	Workshops/Session IA (Choose One of four)
	How to write a grant to support your Fellowship Research Project and have fun doing it! Todd Florin, MD, MSCE, FAAP; Lise Nigrovic, MD, MPH, FAAP & Prashant Mahajan, MD, MPH, MBA, FAAP You have designed your fellowship project. Now it's time to apply for funding to support your project. We will discuss why applying for funding is important, even when your project can be completed without support.	Skyview 1
	Leveraging technology to create innovative and Engaging educational experiences Brad Sobolewski, MD, MEd, FAAP & Todd Chang, MD, MAcM, FAAP Recent work hour's regulations have put constraints on The amount of time trainees can spend on educational Activities. Attendees to this workshop will learn about Online asynchronous learning, and how to create compelling Content, including brief educational videos, podcasts and blog posts.	Skyview 2

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference

Sunday, April 23, 2017

Continued

Sustaining positive change through Quality Improvement

Lori Rutman, MD, MPH, FAAP & Lalit Bajaj, MD, MPH, FAAP

Most residents and all fellows are required to participate in QI activities. Many turn those activities into a QI project. Skyview 3
This workshop will briefly summarize implementation of QI projects and QI research methodology as the foundation of a talk on how to continue to measure and ensure that changes are sustained to patients continue to benefit from the work being done. Examples of impactful QI projects that have led to sustained change will be detailed.

Developing an Education Portfolio

Eileen Klein, MD, MPH, FAAP

The future Clinical-Educator needs the tools to showcase Their scholarly work (which may not be traditional manuscript publications) in an organized manner that reflects their Skyview 4 efforts. During this workshop, the fellow will gain knowledge about the contents of an education portfolio and begin the process of developing their own portfolio.

10:30am - 10:45am

Break

Skyview Promenade in front of Skyview 1-4

10:45am - 12:00pm

Workshops/Session IB (Choose One of four)

How to write a grant to support your Fellowship Research Project and have fun doing it!

Skyview 1

Todd Florin, MD, MSCE, FAAP; Lise Nigrovic, MD, MPH, FAAP & Prashant Mahajan, MD, MPH, MBA, FAAP

Leveraging technology to create innovative and engaging educational experiences

Skyview 2

Brad Sobolewski, MD, MEd, FAAP & Todd Chang, MD, MAcM, FAAP

Sustaining positive change through Quality Improvement

Skyview 3

Lori Rutman, MD, MPH, FAAP & Lalit Bajaj, MD, MPH, FAAP

Developing an Education Portfolio

Skyview 4

Eileen Klein, MD, MPH, FAAP

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference Sunday, April 23, 2017 Continued

12:00pm - 1:30pm	Lunch	Skyview 5-6
------------------	-------	-------------

1:30pm - 3:00pm	Afternoon Session I Fellow Research Presentations-Small Groups See Assignments Skyview 1-4 (26 th Floor) Skyview Office (26 th Floor) Las Vegas Ballroom 1-7 (3 rd Floor) Jubilee Ballroom 1-3 (2 nd Floor)
-----------------	--

3:00pm - 3:30pm	Break Skyview Promenade in front of Skyview 1-4 Las Vegas Ballroom Lobby Jubilee Ballroom Lobby
-----------------	---

3:30pm - 6:00pm	Afternoon Session II Fellow Research Presentations-Small Groups See Assignments Skyview 1-4 (26 th Floor) Skyview Office (26 th Floor) Las Vegas Ballroom 1-7 (3 rd Floor) Jubilee Ballroom 1-3 (2 nd Floor)
-----------------	---

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference

Monday, April 24, 2017

7:00am - 8:00am	Breakfast (Meet the Faculty)	Skyview 5-6
8:00am - 9:00am	Plenary: Bad Medicine: Potentially Harmful or Ineffective Medical Practices Robert Hickey, MD, FAAP How accurate is the witticism” half of what you learned in medical school is wrong, the difficulty lies in figuring out which half”? It turns out to be remarkably accurate. In this session, we will discover how routinely accepted medical practices, including IV fluids, oxygen, monitors, antibiotics, antipyretics, antacids, NSAIDS and more have the potential to harm patients. Each of the individual topics are laden with research opportunities. At the end of this session, it will be impossible for an attendee to say “I can’t think of a research idea”.	Skyview 5-6
9:00 am – 9: 15am	Break
9:15am - 10:30am	Workshops/Session IA (Choose One of four) Manuscript Review and Revision: The Peer Review Process Steven Green, MD The peer review process can be mysterious to many PEM Fellows Understanding the process will give fellows the tools to become excellent peer reviewers by learning the process. During the workshop, fellows will be given an original manuscript submission after a brief didactic session and then work in small groups to discuss and generate a peer review.	Skyview 1
	Education studies in the ED: Avoiding pitfalls and maximizing success Christine S Cho, MD, MPH, MEd, FAAP; Deborah R Liu, MD, FAAP & Todd Chang, MD, MAcM, FAAP This 3-part workshop prepares future PEM leaders to design meaningful and scholarly educational interventions while working within a busy and fast paced clinical ED.	Skyview 2

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference Monday, April 24, 2017 Continued

9:15am - 10:30am

Workshops/Session IA (Choose One of four) (continued)

"I Feel You" Understanding Generational Gaps to Improve Education and Leadership

Constance McAneney, MD, MS, FAAP

During this VERY interactive session, participants will understand generational differences related to learning activities as well as management/ responsibilities perspectives based on generational gaps (in short = how we think is how we act). Attendees will discuss different techniques to narrow differences and to allow a better educational/working environment since for the first time in Medicine, four generations are working at the same time in our systems.

Skyview 3

What Did You Say? The Value of Real Communication

Joan Shook, MD, MBA, FAAP

Clear concise communication with patients is a critical component of the experience of care. Relationship centered (empathic) communication has been shown to improve diagnostic accuracy, care efficiency and physician job satisfaction as well as patient satisfaction scores and compliance with care recommendations. Communication techniques will be discussed and tools to enhance providers' communication skills with patients will be introduced.

Skyview 4

10:30am - 10:45am

Break

Skyview Promenade in front of Skyview 1-4

AGENDA

PEM Fellows Conference Monday, April 24, 2017 Continued

10:45am - 12:00pm

Workshops/Session IB (Choose One of four)

Manuscript Review and Revision:
The Peer Review Process
Steven Green, MD

Skyview 1

Education studies in the ED: Avoiding pitfalls and maximizing success

Skyview 2

*Christine S Cho, MD, MPH, MEd, FAAP; Deborah R Liu, MD, FAAP
& Todd Chang, MD, MACM, FAAP*

"I Feel You" Understanding Generational Gaps
to Improve Education and Leadership

Skyview 3

Constance McAneney, MD, MS, FAAP

What Did You Say? The Value of Real Communication

Skyview 4

Joan Shook, MD, MBA, FAAP

12:15pm - 1:00pm

Closing Plenary
2017 Pediatric Emergency Medicine Literature
Review

Christopher Amato, MD, FACEP, FAAP

Skyview 5-6

Staying up to speed with the current literature is always a challenge. This presentation will be a fast paced romp through the best literature published in PEM during the past year.